Dear Lorraine,

My wife came home with your magazine yesterday, and when I saw Louise Pitre on the cover, I decided to read it. We had seen Louise perform her play at the Gayety recently, and quite enjoyed her energy and treatment of the story. Our evening was very well attended, with many in the audience enjoying the play because they might have 'been there' . . . lots of our parents age group in the audience.

As I read the other articles, your premise, 'Women with Vision' became clear to me. Your focus is certainly one that needs exposure, and I congratulate you on your attention to those who are living their dreams, and not letting convention, tradition, insecurity stand in the way.

Best regards

Jim

Hi Lorraine,

I enjoy presenting Laughter Yoga at your Women with Vision Networking Luncheon on Thursday. It is always fun to share with a group, especially women. Laughter Yoga does make a connection deeper and I love Yoga so this venue seemed like a good fit to relieve pre Christmas stress. Your group of women are wonderful and it was so nice to see familiar faces as well as meet new people. I look forward to coming to more Women With Vision sessions. Thank you for inviting me and for the lovely flowers. I love them. Ho Ho Ha Ha Ha,

Lorraine,

It was so nice to see you at the Wasaga Beach Businesswomen's Christmas Networking Event.

I just have to share with you how impressed I am at the quality of your magazine and the professional writer's you have are amazing, educational, motivational and knowledgeable.

I love the way the pages flow with colour and creativity, not too much frill, its clean and easy to read.

Wishing you all the best in the New Year and I look forward to reading each issue of Women with Vision and watch you continue to grow your dream. All the best in 2007, its going to be your lucky year.

Take Care

Lorraine,

we love having your magazine at the Craigleith General Store. Our patrons enjoy sitting and reading it as they have there early morning coffee. Many of them are locals and take the magazine home with them to read. I also enjoyed reading it, especially the recipes which I have made personally for my family. Congratulations on your magazine and we look forward to seeing you and your publication for many years to come.

Best regards

Carol

Too much fun, at the Women with Vision luncheons. Speaker Adele Kirby had the ladies in stitches with her keynote speech on "Laughing Yoga". Left - Collingwood Chapter, Right - Owen Sound Chapter.
