Hi Lorraine,
I just wanted to let you know that I always look forward to the new editions of your magazine. There are consistently articles that touch me in some way or another.

However, after reading Lt Col. (Retired) Thomas Christianson's last article on the Canadian victory at Vimy Ridge, I felt compelled to write in with my appreciation of his contribution to your magazine. His articles are well written and always make me think, remember and appreciate the freedoms we take for granted in our every day lives. Keep up the great work,

Laura

Hello Ladies,
I'm so sorry that this thank you did not get sent out earlier, but even though it is coming late - it still has the same bang to it.

The "Women with Vision" magazine is in my opinion, a little power book. I am enjoying my subscription.

To my surprise, I was reading through the Nov/Dec 06 issue, and I came across my email to your organization - that was a very nice surprise. Thank you!!

Wishing this powerful magazine, continued success and much more.

I am truly inspired by many articles, and encouraged to stay strong in my shoes, and be the best woman I can be.

Warm Hugs,
LUCY

I have watched the program 'Women with Vision' on Channel 10, Rogers Cable, and have found it very interesting. On one occasion Lorraine had a program on compounding pharmacies; I found it very helpful. Since I had heard of this type of pharmacy and I enjoy the natural approach, I was pleased to know that this was available to me if necessary. Sometime later when I was considering using bio-identical hormone cream, I contacted Lorraine who put me in touch with Leslie Paul who operates the compounding pharmacy in Collingwood. It was so nice to speak to Leslie about my concerns and where I could locate a compounding pharmacy in my area.

I am grateful to Women in Vision for their mission to assist women in their needs.

Hi Lorraine

I was shopping for grocery supplies for tonights menus at Mary's Restaurant in Thornbury's IGA when I was approached by a lady...

She tapped my on the shoulder and said
"You're the Chef at Mary's Restaurant, aren't you?"
I replied, "Yes". Then she said, "I saw your recipe write up in Women with Vision Magazine. I was very surprised and pleased at the same time so I quietly said "Oh, gee, you recognize me, thank you."

How nice it was have someone stop me and say hello and to know that your magazine has such a captive readership and that they take the time to tell us. Keep up the great work!
