

Feedback...

Hello Lorraine -
I should have written sooner, but have been meaning to....

Thank you for taking the time to interview me, and feature my story so prominently in this month's Women With Vision. I appreciate the attention, the kindness and the way you treated this journey that I've been on.

I look forward to seeing you in just a few weeks at Titz 'n Glitz - should be another amazing night!

Take care, and thank you again. I am so grateful.

Sincerely,
ERIN

Publisher's note:

To Mike Cooper, CHFI 98.1 FM Morning Show:
Thank you for all your interest in Women with Vision and Erin Davis's feature article. I understand you were a little remiss that your picture was not included in her article – apparently the audience, as well as you, found it amusing. Alas, here you are in full colour...so sorry for the omission. The response from your kibitzing was fantastic. I received emails, phone calls and feedback all week long. A huge thank you to you both.
Warmest regards,
Lorraine Leslie

Dear Loraine and Staff,
One weekend in July when my husband and I were up at the boat on Sparrow Lake, I visited our Marina store to pick up some ice for our cooler. When at the cash counter I saw your magazine. I quickly thumbed through it, and thought that I'd enjoy reading the articles.

Well, I was right. I loved the magazine, and I haven't had the opportunity till today to email you with my compliments on a fabulous gathering of great reading that either was a fun read, or an educated read.

I'm in the floral industry, I freelance as a floral designer and I work with an overseas company importing quality flowers to high end flower shops. I work six days a week - sometimes seven - and when I am able to sit, relax and have the luxury to read, it would be wonderful to look forward to reading the insightful articles in your magazine, that I know I would enjoy and share with my friends and daughters.

Your magazine is appropriately titled: "Women with Vision" and you most certainly provide articles that educate, inspire, motivate, stimulate and inform women who continue to empower themselves. K U D O S!!!

I reside in Oakville, Ontario and I'm hoping that you will mail subscriptions to this area.

Enclosed is my name and mailing address, please let me know if you can send me back issues and subscribe me to future issues.

I look forward to hearing from you. Again, thank you for putting together such an amazing and powerful little magazine.

Lucy

Hi Lorraine,
I apologize....this thank you is long overdue.

Thanks so much for believing that I was worthy of a story in VISION FOR MEN! The article has been met with much positive feedback and I am flattered when I hear so.

You have mentioned that I have inspired you....candidly, it's you that inspires me!! Keep the momentum going...who knows where this will take you!!

Thanks again,
Kevin

Hello Lorraine,
I found your website, like all the other goodies I find – I completely stumbled across it.

I was at the highlyrecommend.com website and then I followed that link to the sisterscreatingastir.com website and on their favorite links, your magazine was listed. I was absolutely thrilled with your mandate last night and felt such an urgency deep within to contact you.

The writers for your magazine are outstanding and so very wise. A wonderful mix of expertise and wit and care. Everything a Woman's magazine should be! Love it.

Thank you for being out there and giving 'women with vision' something wonderful to re-inspire their spirits.

Bravo!!!
Ana
