

Tanya is an inspiring and passionate professional speaker, author and business success coach who has presented before audiences in over 25 countries.

With over 20 years experience, she has worked at every level of the salon and spa industry, including the successful development and multi-million dollar distribution of her own brand of anti-aging skin care. Currently Tanya works with top producing salons and Fortune 500 companies developing success strategies for breakthrough business excellence. She is also the co-founder of Courageous Living, an empowerment company providing experiential education, tools and resources for a life of unyielding passion, purpose and boundless creativity. Most recently, Tanya spoke to 10 thousand people on the stages of L'Oreal Professionnel in Paris and Russia with standing ovations.